

“Contextualizing Bilingualism and Biliteracy”
National Conference on Bilingualism and Biliteracy Development

June 5-6, 2009
Halifax, Nova Scotia
Dalhousie University

This 2-day conference provides a forum to highlight and discuss the exciting contributions being made to understand, improve and sustain early childhood language development in Canada. We are delighted to welcome Dr. Kimbrough Oller (The University of Memphis) and Dr. Aydin Durgunoglu (University of Minnesota Duluth) as international keynote speakers along with Dr. Lesly Wade-Woolley (Queen's University) and Dr. Roy Lyster (McGill University).

Registration:

Registration will be managed through our partner CASLPA (Canadian Association of Speech-Language Pathologists and Audiologists). Registration for this two day event is only $75 – including nutrition breaks and lunch! Registration Form here.

Posters:

The Canadian Language and Literacy Research Network (CLLRNet) invites poster submissions to the “Contextualizing Bilingualism and Biliteracy” Conference. Researchers, practitioners, partners and students are encouraged to share their insight, experience, methods and research. Posters should address broadly topics related to language and literacy, and do not need to be specific to the bilingual context. Further details here.

Accommodation:

Room block available at The Cambridge Suites for $145 pp/night. Rate includes deluxe continental breakfast, complimentary in-room high speed internet and local calls. Please contact Katy Pocock (katy@cclrnet.ca) to book your room at the conference rate. Book now as space is limited!
